PERSONAL MENTION

W. T. Hislop is in the city from Portland on a regular business visit.
M. J. Foster of this city, left Saturday night for a visit at Pleasant Hill, Mo.
A. A. Shurman, formerly of this city, spent Sunday in Pendleton from Walla Walla.
Fred Andrews, a prominent rancher and stockman of Echo, is in Pendleton today.
Mrs. Hannah Rogers, who has been visiting with Mrs. C. F. Brown for a month, has returned from her home at La Grande.
James E. Tutt and family, of Great Falls, Mont., who are visiting Mrs. W. D. Papineau, will locate permanently in Umatilla county.
Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bales of Rosehill, Va., arrived in the city looking for a location, and are guests of Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Lovell, of the United Brethren church.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fiedler of Grand Rapids, Mich., who were recently married in this city, have located at Pilot Rock, where Mr. Fiedler has taken a homestead.
Rufus Valle, head janitor at the Walla Walla county court house, was in Pendleton last night on his way home from a trip to Hot Lake, where he has been receiving treatment for rheumatism.

Rev. G. L. Hall, L. E. Penland and Mrs. J. H. Stockman returned Saturday night from Helix, where they attended the district convention of the Interdenominational Sunday school, at that place Friday and Saturday. They report an interesting meeting.

A. Laing, a well known farmer of north of town is a business visitor today. He says the freezing weather is not damaging the wheat for the reason that most of the early sown grain is beyond reach of the freeze and the last sown is not yet sprouted and cannot therefore be damaged.

Churches Well Attended.

All the churches of the city, Sunday schools and auxiliary societies were well attended yesterday, and last evening. Several of the churches are expecting to hold special services during the next few weeks. Announcement will soon be made of a number of prominent speakers who will conduct revivals in the city. A joint campaign is now in contemplation and all the various protestant denominations will hold special meetings at the same time.

Heavy Fogs Today.

Train crews coming down the Blue mountains today say that the sun was shining brightly at Kamela and Meacham, and that the fog hanging over the foothills is not very extensive. From the mountains they could look over the top of the fog hanging over Pendleton. The sun shining over it gave it a very picturesque appearance.

Henry Jankalo Dead.

Henry Jankalo, of Greasewood, died this morning of chronic liver trouble. He was 52 years of age and leaves a widow and nine children. The funeral will take place at Greasewood tomorrow at noon.

LAND FRAUD CASES.

Arguments Have Begun—Will Go to Jury Tomorrow.

Portland, Dec. 5.—Arguments for the defense in the land fraud cases began this morning, opened by L. F. Pater, of Eureka, Cal., brother of one of the defendants, who will be followed by O'Day, who in turn will be followed by Heney in a closing argument for the prosecution. The case will go to the jury tomorrow forenoon.

EIGHTEEN INJURED.

Jumped From Windows at a Factory Fire.

New York, Dec. 5.—Eighteen were injured, some seriously, as the result of a fire this afternoon in the repair and storage department of the Standard Automobile company, on West Thirty-ninth street. A spark set fire to a pool of gasoline on the floor and communicated to a 100-gallon tank, which ignited. Eighteen men jumped from the windows, and all were injured. Loss, $100,000.

SEIZING SUBPOENAS.

Will Examine Mormon Elder About Plural Marriages.

Salt Lake, Dec. 5.—United States Marshal Haywood is serving subpoenas today on witnesses in the Smoot investigation. The first man served was Elder John Nicholson, recorder of Salt Lake temple, who will be examined regarding plural marriages.

John P. Soule, Seattle's most prominent photographer, died November 29 of apoplexy, aged 77.

LOW RATES FOR STUDENTS.

Railroads Grant One and a Third Fares for Holiday Vacations.

Walla Walla, Dec. 25.—Following a well fixed custom in the east the railroads of Washington and Oregon will make special rates for students who desire to spend their holiday vacation at their homes.

For the first time in the history of the roads they will this year grant a one and one-third return trip rate to all students who wish to spend their holidays with relatives.

The tickets will be sold under the usual certificate plan and will bear a final return limit of January 9. All students who desire to take advantage of the reduced rates must present a signed certificate from the president of the institution to the effect that they are entitled to receive the reduction.

The rate will be made by the Washington & Columbia River railway and the Oregon Railway and Navigation lines and will apply to all stations along the line where the ticket amounts to $5 or more. Tickets will be on sale the day that each school closes and the following day for all dates between December 16 and 26, and will be good only for continuous passage to the point of destination.

Walla Walla Land Business.

Walla Walla, Dec. 5.—The month of November was a busy one in the local land office. Over 112,000 passed through the hands of Receiver Gillis according to his report just submitted to the department. There were 41 sales of public lands, of 430.71 acres for $9268.26. These sales include commuted homestead entries not entered in the acreage. There were 10 desert land entries, covering 2809.57 acres, $702.47.

There are 25,000 acres in the hands of a man.
